UK MUNTJAC DEER DISTRIBUTION

WHERE DO THEY LIVE?

MUNTJAC DEER:
• come from south east Asia
• are Britain’s smallest species of deer
• are also known as ‘barking deer’
• males have small, curved antlers and obvious canine teeth

HOW BIG ARE THEY?

Young (fawns) born all year round. Muntjac deer are usually solitary or found in pairs.

DID YOU KNOW?

www.bds.org.uk