Several Liability

This notice contains important information. You should read it carefully.

The liability of an insurer under this Policy is several and not joint with other insurers party to this Policy. An insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. An insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other insurer. Nor is an insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that may underwrite this Policy.

The proportion of liability under this Policy underwritten by an insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown in this Policy.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is an insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that may underwrite this Policy. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Although reference is made at various points in this notice to "this Policy" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

Your Policy and the information disclosed by You

In deciding to accept this Policy and in setting the terms and premium, We have relied on the information You have given Us.

You must take care when answering any questions We ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If We establish that You deliberately or recklessly provided Us with false or misleading information We will treat Your Policy as if it never existed and decline all claims. We may not return premium already paid by You in this situation.

If We establish that You provided Us with false, incomplete or misleading information, it can adversely affect Your Policy and any claim.

For example:

(a) where We could have accepted the risk and offered You a Policy but We would have charged a higher premium, We may only pay a percentage of any claim that You make under the Policy. We would do this by considering the premium We actually charged as a percentage of the higher premium We would have charged and then paying You the same percentage of any claim.

So, as an example: if the premium We actually charged was £250 and the higher premium We would have charged was £1,000, then the premium We actually charged represents 25% of the higher premium We would have charged and We shall only pay 25% of any claim.

(b) We may treat this Policy as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium, subject to a deduction for any commission paid to Your insurance broker. We will only do this if the false, incomplete or misleading information means that We provided You with insurance cover when We would not otherwise have offered it at all had the risk been fairly presented.

(c) if We would have written the risk on different terms had it been fairly presented, We may amend the Policy to include these terms. We may apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made.

(d) We may cancel Your Policy in accordance with its cancellation provisions.

We will write to You if We:

(i) intend to treat Your Policy as if it never existed; or

(ii) amend the terms of Your Policy; or

(iii) reduce Your claim in accordance with the above.

If You become aware that information You have given Us is inaccurate or incomplete or if the information changes, You must inform Us without delay.

Observance of Policy Terms and Suspension of Cover

Every condition stated as a condition that applies to this Policy (whether to one or more Sections or the Policy as a whole) shall apply and continue to be in force during the whole currency of this Policy.

We will have no liability under this Policy in respect of any loss occurring or attributable to something happening during a period of non-compliance with a condition and cover will be suspended for the period from the date of the breach until the breach has been remedied unless You can prove that the breach of the condition could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred.

Your right to cancel

In the first year of this Insurance You have the right to cancel the insurance Policy within 14 days of receiving the Policy documentation or from the inception date of the Policy (whichever date is the later) and receive a full refund of any premium paid, provided that there have been no claims either paid, reported or outstanding. For the purposes of this cancellation clause, it will be considered that You will have received the Policy document upon the day following the date it was posted to You by first class post or was supplied to You electronically or You were supplied with the means by which You could access the Policy electronically.

If You do cancel this insurance within the initial 14 day period, then no cover will have been in place from the date of inception, as specified in the Schedule, and no liability whatsoever shall attach to Us in respect of the Policy.

If You do not exercise Your right of cancellation within the initial 14 day period, this insurance Policy will automatically come into force from the inception date specified in the Schedule. You will remain liable to pay the full annual premium. Following the expiry of the initial 14 day period, this insurance Policy may be cancelled at any time at Your written request. We reserve the right not to allow a return of premium.

To exercise Your right to cancel, contact the broker who arranged this cover for You.

The law that governs the interpretation of this Policy

All disputes concerning the interpretation of this Policy are understood and agreed by both You and Us to be subject to English Law. Each party agrees to submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within England or Wales and to comply with all requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction. All matters arising hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court.
